

INTERMEDIATE DESIGNER

Looking for a creative design role at a collaborative, fast-paced studio? Long to craft site-sensitive, beautiful spaces alongside a team of talented, experienced architects? Join us at Feldman Architecture – an award-winning firm specializing in sustainable, modern residential design.

The ideal candidate will embody Feldman Architecture's core values of professionalism, teamwork, passion, and commitment. They will demonstrate exceptional technical abilities while sharing our aesthetic sensitivity and commitment to environmental stewardship.

What you will need to succeed:

- Bachelor or Master of Architecture degree
- 3+ years of architectural work experience, preferably 2 years minimum in residential design practice
- Highly organized individual who engages on all aspects of projects, from schematic design onward
- Passion for elegant, sustainable solutions and for creating high-quality design
- Working knowledge of SketchUp, Lumion, and Adobe Creative Cloud (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign)
- Proficiency in Revit with 3D modeling skills; Rhino or Enscape desired
- Familiarity with residential construction, including appropriate products, specifications, detailing, and documentation methods
- Comprehensive knowledge of building codes and entitlements process
- Experience managing Consultant Coordination, including Structural, Civil, Landscape, Lighting, Mechanical, Geotechnical and Surveyors
- Ability to manage deadlines and participate in multiple projects
- Strong written and verbal communication, conceptual design, and schematic design skills
- Independent self-starter as well as collaborative team player who thrives in an open environment
- Willing to take on new challenges and embrace office culture and values

Salary Range: $72,000 - $92,000

Location: Hybrid opportunity to both work from home as well as in our lively design studio in San Francisco - a recently renovated Fire House off of Polk Street.
